

The Canterbury Civic War Memorial is in urgent need of protection!

The name plates are fine but the rest of the monument is literally falling apart. The ornate figures and coats of arms are crumbling away.