

Folkestone

Christ Church
Sandgate Road

This church was almost completely destroyed on Sunday 17th May 1942 when a German aircraft dropped a bomb on the building. Now only the bell tower remains. Two civilians were killed in the raid – Miss May Thompson and Mrs Vera E Ansell.

The South facing wall displays a very rare Boer War Memorial that lists the local men of Folkestone who served in the colours during the war.

This unusual war memorial consists 4 separate bronze panels

South African War 1899 - 1902 (The Boer War)

“Public Record of the volunteers from Folkestone and District who served in the South African War 1899 – 1902”
